

How To Lead: Significant Thoughts by Great Leaders

Since this month's focus is on leading teams, How to Lead turns its focus to some significant thoughts of those who've built and led great, winning teams in sports, politics, the military, and business. Enjoy them and what they mean for you.

- Love is the force that ignites the spirit and binds teams together. ~ Phil Jackson
- We are what we think. ~ Buddha
- Cooperation is the thorough conviction that nobody can get there unless everybody gets there. ~ Virginia Burden
- We must all hang together or most assuredly we shall hang separately. ~ Benjamin Franklin
- The ratio of We's to I's is the best indicator of the development of a team. ~ Lewis B. Ergen
- No member of a crew is praised for the rugged individuality of his rowing. ~ Ralph Waldo Emerson
- No one can whistle a symphony. It takes a whole orchestra to play it. ~ H.E. Luccock
- Talent wins games, but teamwork and intelligence wins championships. ~ Michael Jordan
