

Power Words

Jack Griffin, in How to Say It at Work, maintains that specific words work more effectively with followers than others. Here are a few:

- Advice
- Advise
- Analyze
- Learn
- Manage
- Plan
- Reconsider
- Formulate
- Revise

Of course, no single word can stand alone but Griffin recommends that leaders should seek to integrate words like those on the list above into their conversations with their followers.