

Where You Sit Matters

Where you sit can help or hurt your ability to communicate. Take a look at four depictions of people (indicated by an "x" or an "o") seated at a table or desk (depicted by the rectangle). Which depiction (A,B,C, or D) lends itself to:

- Competition?
- Cooperation?
- Non-communication?
- Communication?

(Answers below.)

A-cooperation, B-competition, C- communication, D- noncommunication
